PHILOSOPHICAL INTERVENTIONS IN LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND CRITICAL THINKING

Organized by

Department of Philosophy, English, Bengali, Sanskrit & Political Science

Under the aegis of

IQAC

Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya

Khatra: Bankura

Date: 23rd March, 2023

Concept Note:

Philosophy, a discipline whose insights are born of the interventions of thinking and language, has the reputation of not just being an ancient discipline, but one that revives itself, Phoenix like in every age. Philosophical concerns being related to Language, Literature and Critical thinking; are treated as one of the founding stones of a civilization. From the etymological perspective, philosophy means the love of knowledge. Darshana stands for self-realization and thereby refers to the achievement of liberation. To give up philosophizing is covalent to ceasing to be self-conscious beings.

Philosophy critically investigates Language in relation to its meaning, intentionality, reference and ambiguities. Frege and Russell were key figures in analytic philosophy's conceptualization of 'linguistic turn' which started to comprehend philosophy to be a matter of philosophy of language and philosophical problem as a linguistic problem. Therefore, linguistic analysis is one major way to address any philosophical problem.

Any kind of analysis, whether conceptual or linguistic is based on critical thinking i.e., logical reasoning perse. Philosophy strives with a view to promoting clarity, precision, and open-mindedness in academic research and in society at large. This seminar aims to offer a perspective on the role of philosophy in interacting or engaging in a constant dialogue with other academic disciplines and transacting with society in general.

The world and its puzzling problems are not restricted to one domain or discipline. We must transgress boundaries of disciplines to address these issues. The belief behind this seminar is that the philosophical spark is very much there, waiting to be fanned into a flame by creative interdisciplinary engagements.
