Political Science is a dynamic discipline of Social Science. In behavioural sense, Politics is an art of human nature and in theoretical perspective, Political Science is a science in other sense 'queen of all science'. As a subject, Political Science can be motivated to socialize students and develop their personality and to adopt the quality of leadership among them. So as a department, Political Science must be having some perspective plan to improve the students, teacher, department along with institutional all-round development. Department of Political Science, Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya has tried to create a perspective plan for the department. This plan outlines the goals, strategies, and initiatives that will guide the department's development over a specific period. Department of Political Science has the following perspective plan-

I. Vision Statement:

To cultivate critical thinking, promote civic engagement, and produce well-rounded graduates equipped with the knowledge and skills to navigate the complexities of the political world.

II. Mission Statement:

The Political Science department is committed to provide high-quality education, fostering research and analytical skills, and instilling a sense of social responsibility among students, preparing them for active participation in a globalized society.

III. Goals and Objectives:

Academic Excellence:

Objective 1: Enhance the curriculum to reflect contemporary political issues and diverse perspectives.

Objective 2: Foster a culture of research and publication among faculty and students.

Objective 3: Increase student participation in conferences, seminars, and internships.

Technology Integration:

Objective 1: Implement technology-enhanced learning tools in the curriculum.

Objective 2: Establish an online platform for resource sharing and collaboration.

Objective 3: Provide training for faculty on the effective use of technology in teaching.

Community Engagement:

Objective 1: Establish partnerships with local government agencies, NGOs, and community organizations.

Objective 2: Organize outreach programs, workshops, and events to connect students with real-world political issues.

Objective 3: Encourage faculty and students to contribute expertise to community projects.

Student Development:

Objective 1: Develop a mentorship program to guide students in their academic and professional pursuits.

Objective 2: Provide career counselling and internship opportunities for practical experience.

Objective 3: Create a student association to encourage extracurricular involvement and leadership development.

Internationalization:

Objective 1: Foster partnerships with international universities for exchange programs.

Objective 2: Encourage faculty to engage in collaborative research with scholars from around the world.

Objective 3: Develop a global perspective in the curriculum, addressing international political issues.

IV. Strategies and Initiatives:

Faculty Development:

Conduct regular workshops and seminars on teaching methodologies and research. Encourage faculty to attend conferences and publish in reputable journals.

Infrastructure Enhancement:

Upgrade classrooms with modern teaching aids. Establish a dedicated research centre for faculty and student use.
