Ambedkar Jayanti Observance

ST & SC Cell & OBC Cell

On April 14th, 2024, Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya bore witness to a deeply resonant observance of Ambedkar Jayanti, jointly orchestrated by the Scheduled Tribes (ST) & Scheduled Castes (SC) Cell and the Other Backward Classes (OBC) Cell. In this collaborative endeavour, students took centre stage, actively participating and contributing their voices to honour the legacy of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. Inspired by his relentless pursuit of social justice, students delivered impassioned speeches and engaged in thought-provoking discussions. The event served as a powerful reminder of Dr. Ambedkar's enduring influence, inspiring a new generation to champion his ideals of inclusivity and empowerment. Their enthusiastic participation underscored the institute's commitment to nurturing socially conscious individuals who are poised to create positive change in their communities. It was a testament to the enduring impact of Dr. Ambedkar's teachings and the boundless potential of youth-driven initiatives in advancing the cause of equality and justice.
