The background of the slide is a photograph of the main entrance gate of Bankura University. The gate is a large, symmetrical structure with two prominent towers on either side. Each tower has a dark, arched roof and a small, square window near the base. The central part of the gate is a wide opening with a metal fence. The overall color scheme of the gate is light beige or cream, with dark brown or black accents on the roofs and window frames. The sky in the background is a pale blue with some light clouds.
