Title of the programme: One Day Educational Tour to Dokra Village and Museum

Organized by: Department of History under the guidance of IQAC

Date of the programme: 22th September, 2018

Number of student participants: 30

Number of teacher participants: 4

Place of activity: Dokra Village and Museum, Bankura, West Bengal

Aims and Objectives: Dokra is an ancient folk-art tradition of India and its roots can be traced back 4500 years ago, to the ancient city of Mohenjodaro, of the Indus Valley civilization. Dokra objects are made through non-ferrous metal casting, using lost-wax casting technique, which is one of the earliest and most advanced methods of metal casting. At present, this art form is found in pockets of West Bengal, Odisha, Jharkhand and Chhatisgarh. The purpose of this educational tour is to enable our students to get a sneak peek into the lives of artisans and even interact with them and also to make them witness the art of making dokra objects.

Programme Outcome: The students gathered valuable knowledge on Dokra art and technique and also on the socio-economic status of the artisans. This visit promoted celebration of indigenous culture which is also a matter of best practice for our college in this ensuing session.
